Now in its seventh edition, the Kawai Summer Music Campus in Ledro has become a reference point for dozens of young Italian and foreign musicians, an occasion for musical growth and cultural enrichment, but also for conviviality and contact with natural beauties of Valle di Ledro. The lessons will be held on a beautiful Shigeru Kawai concert grand, encouraging dialogue and reflection on the most important technical and interpretative topics. The opportunity to perform in three of the events of the XV International Concert Season Kawai a Ledro will also be offered. The Summer Music Campus is intended as a meeting of talents, a factory of ideas from which new collaborations are often born, with new opportunities and engagements for major concert seasons and extraordinary musical realities such as the Primavera di Baggio in Milan. Participation as listeners is free of charge.
